

WHAT HAPPENED OUTSIDE CHICAGO

Racine, Wis.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson has agreed to speak in 5 Wisconsin cities.

Tentative itinerary includes: Racine, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Madison and La Crosse.

Washington.—Sen. Joe Bailey, Texas, kept his promise and introduced resolution hinting that Taft had used influence with senators to vote against Lorimer.

Paris.—Hubert Latham, famous Anglo-French aviator, killed by wild buffalo while hunting in French Sudan near Chari river.

El Paso, Tex.—Gen. Orozco, rebel leader, has been given choice of turning over private fortune to pay troops or relinquishing command.

Mount East, O.—2 men killed and one overcome by black damp in coal mine near here.

Mt. Carmel, Ill.—Capt. H. B. Hicks and wife are finishing trip around world in canoe. Left Ft. Sill, Okla., May, 1910.

Columbia, S. C.—Graft case against Gov. Blease is expected to come to showdown Thursday.

Denver, Col.—Waters of Cherry Creek flood have finally subsided. Revised list shows that only 2 drowned and 12 injured. Damage is estimated at $4,000,000.

Springfield, Ill.—12 leading Republican editors meeting here to arrange convention of all Republican editors in Illinois.

Expected that definite stand will be taken against Roosevelt's party.

Wilmington, Del.—12 tugs managed to pull battleship Wyoming off mud bank in Delaware river.

Los Angeles.—Peter Pirotte, Venice, Cal., policeman, called as witness for Darrow, gave damaging testimony against Bert H. Franklin.

Cleveland, O.—Unknown steam barge, thought to be lumber carrier, burned to water's edge about 3 miles out in lake near here. Crew taken off by tugs.

Paxton, Ill.—Mayor Johnson left for Chicago to attend meeting of Illinois Progressive Party as delegate from Ford county.

Meeting held here last night voted against third party, but endorsed Roosevelt for president.

Washington.—Stanley steel investigating committee will recommend dissolution of steel trust in its report to House.

El Paso, Tex.—Mormon colonists at Colonia Diaz have appealed for aid. Rebels yesterday demanded that the mormons, all of whom are Americans, give up their arms.

St. Louis.—Masked man chased from fender of Burlington passenger train No. 15, en route to Chicago. Police believe that hold up was planned.

Same train that was held up in Union station 2 years ago, when brakeman J. M. Wine was shot and killed.

Peoria, Ill.—George Schiebel, brakeman, fell under a freight train. Received fatal injuries. Died later in widowed mother's arms.